The Region One Autism Education Consortium is honored to present an amazing, internationally recognized expert in social issues for individuals with ASD:

Carol Gray

The Next Generation of Social Stories

Monday, November 5, 2012
6 - 8 PM
Henrico Theater
305 East Nine Mile Rd
Highland Springs, VA 23075

FREE

Carol Gray is the Director of The Gray Center for Social Learning and Understanding. She developed Social Stories™ and Comic Strip Conversations, strategies that are used worldwide with children, adolescents, and adults with autism spectrum disorders (ASD). Ms. Gray will talk about:

- What is and what is NOT a Social Story
- How to Write a Social Story
- Social Context - exploring how the world can be confusing
- How to add Social Context to the Social Stories you write

This will be a FUN and INTERACTIVE workshop!

You will go home having hands-on knowledge of how, when, and why to use Social Stories.

Please register with Carrie Radigan at 804-365-8127 or radiganct@vcu.edu